BURGAN BANK WINS INTERNATIONAL AWARD

Global Banking and Finance Review Magazine, one of the most prestigious publications in the financial world, has awarded the “Fastest Growing Corporate Bank of 2017 Award” to Burgan Bank Turkey.

Burgan Bank, which contributes to the Turkish economy thanks to its sound financial structure and the support of its strong shareholder, has crowned its success by winning acclaim in the international arena. Global Banking and Finance Review Magazine, one of the most prestigious publications in the financial world, has awarded the “Fastest Growing Corporate Bank of 2017 Award” to Burgan Bank Turkey.

Making a statement on the subject Murat Dinç, General Manager of Burgan Bank, commented as follows: “Global Banking and Finance Review, which reviews the world’s best firms in many fields including banking, asset management, and insurance, has chosen our bank as the winner of the “Fastest Growing Corporate Bank of 2017 Award”. At Burgan Bank we maintain our healthy growth in the field of corporate banking based on our relationship banking concept and take firm steps to becoming one of customers’ top three banks. We are going to continue our activities in 2018 with the support of our stronger capital base. In addition, we aim to boost our volumes and profitability levels in foreign trade, treasury and cash management, as well. I believe that we will continue to be successful in the years to come, thanks to the trust that our shareholder and customers have in us and with our focused banking approach.”

When choosing the winners of the 2017 Global Banking and Finance Awards, in its seventh year, several sector-related criteria, including corporate governance principles, financial structure, customer satisfaction, quality management, business model, and technical infrastructure, are taken into consideration.
